

I know that you are looking into an investigation regarding the Superbowl Halftime Show with Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake. I certainly hope that some form of punishment is bestowed the parties responsible for this immoral, tasteless and despicable form of entertainment that aired during a family event. This type of obscene material should never air on broadcast television, during family viewing hours, and especially during a nationwide public event such as the Superbowl. I hope that your rulings are swift and severe in order that this never happens again. Thank you.
